CAST BIOGRAPHIES

Michael Brogdon (Roy & Frank)-Michael graces us with his amazing stage abilities not once, but twice. He made his return to TGV after a small break as the unforgettable George Pigden in Out of Order. Michael was previously seen as Brick in Cat on a Hot Tin Roof, Henry in Lion in Winter, and Tony Wendice in Dial M for Murder. He also directed TGV's production of On Golden Pond and was assistant director for Night of January 16th. Michael earned a BFA in Theatre Arts from VSU where he also appeared in numerous productions.

Gary Chapman (Cletis)-Gary is Director of Communities in Schools of Berrian County and claims Valdosta as his home. After recently completing his Masters Degree in Social Work at VSU, Gary wanted to return to acting. This is his first production with TGV and he has thoroughly enjoyed it.

Michael Ethridge (Jack)-No stranger to the stage, Michael joins us once again. He was last seen directing TGV's competition piece for Georgia Theater Conference, Laundry and Bourbon, which took second place in the state. Michael has been involved in many TGV productions, including this season's musical Something's Afoot. You can catch him as Judge Thatcher in TGV's upcoming children's show Tom Sawyer.

This program is supported in part by the Georgia Council for the Arts through the appropriations from the Georgia General Assembly.

CAST BIOGRAPHIES

Shana Godfrey (Fanny)-Shana is a native of Belize, Central America and joins us for her third TGV performance. She was previously seen in Moon Over Buffalo and Wanted: One Groom in last year's An Evening of One Acts. Unfortunately this is also her last performance with TGV. Shana will be relocating to California to pursue her dreams of being on the big screen. You'll "remember us when," right? Actually, she has furthered her career and is taking a great position in Lancaster, CA. We will miss her dearly and are thankful she graced us with her presence for this long.

M.K. Kondrot (Milly)-M.K. has been with TGV since 1990 when she played Baby Tune in Gypsy. Though she was in Charleston for eight years, M.K. came back to TGV from time to time to help her father Michael with various shows. This too will be M.K.'s last performance with TGV, as she will be moving to Maine. She was a great asset to TGV and will be missed.

Richard Taylor (Ray)-Richard is a three year resident of Valdosta. This is his first show with TGV as an actor. He was previously "unseen" as The Window Man in TGV's last production, Out of Order. Inspired by this role, Richard auditioned for Lonestar on a whim. He has found the experience of being on stage challenging and fun.

CHILDREN'S THEATRE WORKSHOP

Theatre Guild Valdosta is arranging to bring the Missoula Children's Theatre to Valdosta for a week long children's theatre workshop, June 10-16, 2001. Missoula will be auditioning up to 200 children for a cast of 60 people to perform Sleeping Beauty. No experience is needed and any child interested in theater is encouraged to audition. TGV is still looking for financial support for the workshop. Sponsors and donors are needed to fund a total of $3,300. This workshop is an excellent opportunity to further children's theatre in Valdosta and provides a very enriching experience for artistic expression. If you are interested in helping promote this cultural event, please contact Mike Glasscock, TGV President at (229) 249-6494 office or (229) 253-0424

★ AUDITIONS

TGV will be holding auditions for the following shows:
