Director's Notes

How Santa Got His Tree is a great Christmas story about unselfishness and forgiveness. I really enjoyed the opportunity to work with such a superb cast of children and adults. I have to give many thanks to the parents for all their help with the show. Thank you, thank you, thank you to Linda Stikkel for all her work on the set and the entire show. This is a great show that I know you will enjoy!

Cast Biographies

Brent Robison (Jingle)- This is Brent's first appearance with TGV and we are delighted to have him. He really brought his character to life with his wonderful expressions. We hope he plans on continuing with us.

Brittany Davis (Snowflake)- Brittany recently appeared in TGV's production of A Little Princess. She brings us a strong stage presence with her wonderful characterizations and beautiful projection.

Monica Glasscock (Friendly)- Monica has also appeared in TGV productions of Beanie and the Bamboozling Book Machine. Monica brings a warmth to the characters she plays, and Friendly is no exception!

Andrew Burrage (Sneaky)- Andrew has been seen in previous TGV productions, including last season's Toys Take Over Christmas. Andrew does a creative job of adding extras to his characters to make them true to life.

Stacie Studstill (Stingy)- Stacie is a veteran with TGV, having performed in two of last season's productions-Toys Take Over Christmas and A Little Princess. Stacie is a great actress who really becomes the role she is playing.

Amanda Freeman (Mechanical Doll)- Amanda is new to TGV. She makes her debut with us as the Mechanical Doll. She does an excellent job and we hope that this will be the start of her acting career with TGV.

Tom Studstill (Mailman)- Tom makes his debut as well, with an outstanding performance as the North Pole's mailman. We hope this is not the last time you see him on stage!

Mike Glasscock (Mr. Claus)- Mike has appeared in many TGV productions, most recently as Colonel Gillweather in Something's Afoot.

Diane Tovar (Mrs. Claus)- This is Diane's second TGV production. She was recently seen as handwriting expert Jane Chandler in TGV's recent production, Night of January 16th.
