Cast Biographies

Christie "Mac" McAlum (AKA The Maid) is performing in her first production, not only with TGV, but in community theater at large. Arrested by "The Night of January 16th," Christie realized she had been summoned to the audition for the next play. A case manager at Brooks county DFCS by day; She moonlights as a loving aunt of two beautiful nieces, Brittany and Elyse. She enjoys Star Trek The Original Series, old country music, Disney villains, and spending time with family and friends, that is, once she finishes her duties at the Westminster Hotel!

Michael Brogdon (AKA George) is delighted to be returning to the TGV stage. Previous roles include: Brick in "Cat On a Hot Tin Roof," Henry in "Lion in Winter," and Tony Wendice in "Dial M For Murder." He directed TGV's production of "On Golden Pond," and was assistant director for "The Night Of January 16th." Michael earned his BFA in Theatre Arts from VSU where he appeared in numerous productions.

Rick Patrick (AKA Ronnie) has appeared in many TGV productions. His most notable roles include: Elwood P. Dowd in "Harvey," Capt. Von Trapp in "Sound Of Music," Will Stockdale In "No Time For Sergeants," and Stanley in "Run For Your Wife," which was also written by Ray Cooney.

Stephen Voigt (AKA The Hotel Manager) is a Clinical Social Worker who has decided to make Valdosta his home. He is a single parent of a teenage daughter. His first acting experience was in "The Night Of January 16th."

Roger Burrage (AKA the Body), a transplant from Tampa, last performed in "The Night Of January 16th". He performed numerous roles in "No Time For Sergeants," and he is once again playing the part of the body, for which, he won a Rosy in "Dearly Departed".

Patricia "Trish" Croll (AKA Jane) joined TGV 3 years ago for the production "Dearly Departed." Since then, she has performed in "Company," "Something's Afoot," and "Laundry & Bourbon." Trish has a minor in Theatre & a major in Broadcast Journalism from the University of Southern Mississippi. She has performed in community theatre in the states of MS, ND, TX, & GA. She worked at the Valdosta Daily Times for a year before taking a position as the Media & Community Relations Coordinator at Wild Adventures theme park. Trish loves acting, singing, reading, and socializing.

Jennifer Marx (AKA Pamela) in her 2nd season with TGV, was previously seen in "Something's Afoot," "Moon Over Buffalo," and "A Little Princess." She performed in our One Act entry for the Georgia Theatre Conference this year, for which, she won Best Supporting Actress. Jennifer recently Co-directed our Christmas production of "How Santa Got His Tree."

Fred Stikkel (AKA The Waiter) has been a member of this fine troupe since "Anything Goes." You have seen him in many of our comedies and musicals. His last role was in this year's "Something's Afoot." He loves acting and his favorite parts are character roles. We hope he is as entertaining to you as he has been to us.

Darlene Caviness (AKA Gladys) just loves the theatre. She started in community theatre in Missouri 13 years ago and she has been hooked ever since. She has been involved in a multitude of activities since joining TGV including acting, directing, costuming, set building, and lights. Darlene is currently Vice President of TGV and was last seen on stage as Roz in "Moon Over Buffalo." Ricardo Ipina (AKA Mr. Willey) is happy to back on the TGV stage. He thanks Mary Ann for giving him this opportunity and hope's you enjoy the show."
