From the Director,

Southern women bend, they don't break. Problems are faced with a soft touch but an inner core of steel. Look around, you may recognize some of these "Steel Magnolias" in your own life. It is not easy bringing real, ordinary people to life on stage but the actresses you will see tonight have met that challenge. Thank you ladies for being true "Steel Magnolias". Thank you also to the hard working crew, you are outstanding. Special thanks to Andrew, Heather, Lu, Scott and Sherry. Stephenie and Andrea — "you know I love you more than my luggage".

Welcome to Truvy's Beauty Shop where it is once again the 1980's.

-Sandra Dickson
